"Mawwidge ... mawwidge is what bwings us together today."

"Do you love her?"

"A normal human being couldn't live under the same roof with her without going nutty."

"I asked you a simple question. Do you love her?"

"Yes! But don't hold that against me, I'm a little screwy myself."

"You miserable slug! You think you can talk your way out of this? You betrayed me."

"No, I didn't. Honest... I ran out of gas. I, I had a flat tire. I didn't have enough money for cab fare. My tux didn't come back from the cleaners. An old friend came in from out of town. Someone stole my car. There was an earthquake. A terrible flood. Locusts. It wasn't my fault, I swear to God!"

"Hugh, there's something I want you to have. My Dad gave me his cufflinks on the day I married Marge and they brought us good luck. I couldn't imagine a happier marriage. We don't have many traditions in our family, but it would mean a lot to me if you kept this one alive."

"And I said, 'Pardon me, but I'm buying this puppy,' and the man just smiled. And then somehow, all of a sudden, the three of us were having lunch together. The man, and Mr. Smith, and I. And then things began to happen rather swiftly. And finally I said, well, I think we'd better get married. And we did. And that way, we were able to give Mr. Smith a better home and live happily ever after."

"It's the best daaaaay everrrrr ..."

The Wedding Celebration of

We are honored by all our family and friends who have joined us to celebrate this joyous day. Thank you.

Thanks to our parents for their love and support (and perseverance): Sidney and Bettie Kernion, Burt Rosenthal, and Gail Minsky. (We miss you Mom.)

We invite you to share your digital photos. We’ve set up a laptop computer near the entrance and will post any photos you upload for everybody to see.

We have prepared some guest favors for you: the disc Firepower by Burnin’ Mike Vernon and delicious pralines by Bettie Kernion. Please be sure to take some of each before you go.
